Save-On-Foods launches online shopping service in Calgary

(February 17, 2017 – Calgary, Alta.) Calgarians now have the option of shopping online for their groceries through Save-On-Foods, which officially expanded its online shopping, pickup and home delivery service across the city this morning.

Customers simply place their orders online at saveonfoods.com or on their mobile devices with the Save-On-Foods app, then select home delivery or their preferred location and time to pick it up, and a friendly team member will have the order ready to go.

The new Save-On-Foods stores in Airdrie and Okotoks also offer online shopping and pickup.

“We’re so happy to be able to offer the great folks of Calgary our easy and convenient online shopping service,” said Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones. “Our team members pick your groceries as carefully as they pick their own, and online shopping is another way we’re going the extra mile for our neighbours.”
