

A division of the Overwaitea Food Group LP

Media Release

Cooper's Foods in Hope, B.C. converts to Save-On-Foods

Promotions and products unique to Save-On-Foods now available in Hope following overnight conversion

(May 27, 2016 – Hope, B.C.) The former Cooper's Foods in Hope has reopened as a Save-On-Foods, joining Western Canada's largest grocery retail chain.

The store converted overnight with minimal interruption to customers. On Friday morning, the store opened as a Save-On-Foods, which was named BC's Most Loved Brand for the second year running.

Customers can expect the same excellent service from the same friendly team members, but with the added value of the pricing, promotions and programs unique to Save-On-Foods including Talk about What's New, Talk about Fresh Solutions, and Darrell's Deals.

-end-

Save-On-Foods is committed to Going the Extra Mile for customers in every community served, every day. Known for its unique approach in customizing each store to best suit the needs of the neighbourhood and sourcing local products wherever possible, the company has been innovating and putting customers first for over 100 years.

For more information, contact:

Media Relations

604 888 2079, extension 2200

mediarelations@owfg.com