

A division of the Overwaitea Food Group LP, a Jim Pattison business

Media Advisory

Save-On-Foods celebrating one-of-a-kind grocery shopping experience with Regina gala

(March 28, 2016 – Regina, Saskatchewan) The first Save-On-Foods store in Saskatchewan is celebrating its grand opening this weekend with a special invite-only gala on Thursday, March 31.

Joining Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones in making remarks at the gala are special guests Jim Pattison, owner of Save-On-Foods; Regina city councillor Bob Hawkins; and Regina Food Bank CEO Steve Compton.

Admission to this private event is by donation to the Regina Food Bank.

Special presentations and entertainment by Saskatchewan's own Cody Prevost will also play an exclusive concert during the event.

The store officially opens its doors to the public on Friday, April 1, and will hold grand opening promotions and events starting April 2.

To attend the Gala with a guest or to arrange for an in-store photo opportunity or one-on-one interview in the afternoon on March 31 or morning of April 1, please contact Julie Dickson at (604) 992-2538 or julie\_dickson@owfg.com.

What: Save-On-Foods Regina South grand opening sneak preview gala

When: Thursday, March 31, 2016, 6 p.m.

Who: Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones
Save-On-Foods owner Jim Pattison
Regina Food Bank CEO Steve Compton
City Councillor Bob Hawkins

Where: Save-On-Foods
4520 Albert Street South
Regina, Saskatchewan