Save-On-Foods celebrates grand opening of brand new store in Prince Albert

(April 20, 2018 – Prince Albert, Saskatchewan) Prince Albertans will officially have a new grocery player in town tomorrow morning, when Save-On-Foods opens its brand new store in the city's Cornerstone neighbourhood.

Save-On-Foods Prince Albert is open for business all day Friday, with grand opening celebrations (including promotions, food sampling, prizes, and plenty of family fun) taking place on Saturday, April 21. On Saturday, the first 500 customers of the day will receive a free six-by-eight-inch Nanaimo bar.

Along with its full traditional grocery store offering, Save-On-Foods Prince Albert offers customers:

- A full-service in-store pharmacy
- The Save-On-Foods Kitchen, which features fresh sushi, sandwiches and hand-stretched pizza made in store daily
- An industry-leading bulk foods department complete with a make-your-own trail mix bar
- An extensive selection of organic and natural items throughout the store
- A full line of Western Canadian AAA beef, and
- Ocean-friendly seafood.

Customers can also shop online at saveonfoods.com or through the Save-On-Foods app, and the friendly team at Save-On-Foods Prince Albert will do the shopping for them. The team will even load the grocery order into the customer's vehicle.

Save-On-Foods Prince Albert is open from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m., seven days a week.

"We are thrilled to be opening a store in Prince Albert, and I am so proud of the great team we have here," said Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones. "This is a fantastic community that our store is committed to going the extra mile for, and we can't wait to share what Save-On-Foods has to offer with our new customers."
