Save-On-Foods, along with suppliers and business partners, raises $580,348 'fore' children's hospitals of Western Canada

(May 31, 2018 – Langley, B.C.) Together with their suppliers and business partners, the team at Save-On-Foods helped raise $580,348 at yesterday's 23rd annual Save-On-Foods Charity Golf Tournament at Northview Golf and Country Club in Surrey, B.C.

The sold-out tournament saw 360 golfers come together to support the five children's hospitals in Western Canada: BC Children's Hospital, Alberta Children's Hospital, Stollery Children's Hospital, the Jim Pattison Children's Hospital in Saskatchewan, and the Children's Hospital of Manitoba.

"Each year we are blown away by the support of our amazing suppliers and business partners who come together for a common goal of supporting the most precious members of our communities – our kids," said Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones. "Our relationship with our suppliers and business partners goes beyond business; they are an extension of our Save-On-Foods family and for that, we are so thankful."
